Rhys is the youngest among his 6 siblings. His father worked as a police in Manipur, India. He met with a bike accident and since then could not regain his health. He died on 15th January, 2015. His mother does not have proper job and income to support the family nor could she get provisions from her husband's pension as his service years did not reach the benefit. So, Rhys needs help and support for his education. He is currently studying in class 3.
