Broken Hearts Ministries

SAPNA (15 years old) Date of Birth: May 14th, 1999

I was born in a Hindu family. We were very poor. My father was a farmer and my mother was very weak and sick. We were six sisters and it was very difficult for my parents to take care of us and they could not give us a good education. When I was in Nepal I was illiterate and uneducated because I was not able to go to school. There were even times that we didn't have food to eat.

In 2005 by the grace of God I got to come to Blue Haven Children's Home where I have learned so many things. When I came here I didn't know any language except Nepali. Now I can read, write and speak Hindi and English. I'm in Class 8th. When I grow up I want to become an accountant.

I have a love to teach God's Word and to praise and worship Him in the children's home and in church. My desire is to follow after Jesus and tell others about His great love. Someday I would like to go back to Nepal and tell those in our village about Jesus and properly teach them God's Word and about prayer.
